WINONA LAKE PARK.

Meetings of the Bible School-Many New Buildings Erected.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARSAW, Ind., July 16 .- The attendance at Winona lake to-day was enlarged considerably by an excursion from Elwood and vicinity, which brought a trainload of twelve full coaches to the park.

The Rev. W. E. Biederwolf and Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., conducted the meetings of the Bible school at 9 and 11 o'clock this morning and both were well atended. In the afternoon Professor William Gorsuch gave miscellaneous readings in the auditorium and in the evening F. R. Roberson gave a lantern lecture on "Imperial

This year at Winona lake has been especially noteworthy by reason of the number of cottages and other buildings which have been erected, all of which have been of a permanent character. The Kosciusko Lodge has been added to the list of hotels, a clubhouse of thirty rooms has been built on the golf links, the auditorium has been enlarged and remodeled, a large dormitory for the Winona Agricultural and Technical Institute has been completed and the Mount memorial building is now in course of construction and will cost at least $60,000 when completed. Besides all of this the assembly officials have erected fifty cottages in the eastern portion of the grounds and as many more have been constructed by indi-

MALTREATED A COLT.

Two Knightstown Men Arrested fo Cruelty to Animals.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., July 16 .- Affidavits were sworn out this evening by Attorney M. S. Reddick for the arrest of Thomas Cox and Bryce Fort, of this city, on the charge of cruelty to animals. On July 7 Cox was driving a two-year-old colt, attempting to break it to harness. The animal was stubborn and lay down in the road. Cox, it is alleged, then secured the aid of Fort, and they tied a rope about the front legs and the body of the colt, tied it at the back of a wagon, to which two horses were hitched, and dragged the colt a distance of fully seventy rods in the road, with the cart following

The animal was then put on its feet and when taken back to the barn was so weak it could scarcely stand. Great holes were torn in its side and its head was badly cut and bruised. Cox made the boast that he had "conquered" it. R. E. Homer, a local horseman, had been breaking the colt for its owner, but Cox thought he was not getting on fast enough and concluded to try it himself.

Charles M. Schwab in Philadelphia Under an Assumed Name.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17 .- The North

American this morning prints the following: "Charles N. Schwab is staying in Philadelphia under an assumed name. Mr. Schwab left New York on June 30 in the company of his physician, and since that time all trace of him has been lost. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Schwab was seen in the galm room of St. James Hotel. Dr. Alfred Stengel, of Philadelphia, was with him. When a reporter for The North American requested that his card be sent to the steel king he was told that Mr. Schwab was not in the hotel. When the reported pointed out Mr. Schwab he was told that the gentleman's name was 'Mr. Charles Lee, of New York City. "'Mr. Lee' goes out driving almost daily, but seidom unaccompanied. It is said he is taking the rest cure.

Americans Who Were Blown Ashore Held Without Chance of Appeal.

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., July 16.-George Mc-

Camish, whose relatives live here, has written them from a Russian prison at Vladivostock, appealing for help. McCamish and two Americans sailed from Yokohama with permission from the government of Japan to hunt fur animals in the Kurrie islands. They were caught in a gale and swept toward the Russian islands, where they eventually went ashore to get water and supplies. The Russians suspected them of sealing and imprisoned them. They have since remained in jail, half starved, shut off from any appeal to the representative of their government, doomed to long terms of imprisonment. An attempt will be made to have the authorities at Washington act in
